GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS KANOF TO MEDICAL CARE COMMISSION

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Dr. Liz Kanof of Raleigh to the North Carolina Medical Care Commission.

Kanof is a board certified dermatologist. She is a member of the EMS Advisory Council and the North Carolina Physicians Health Program board member. Kanof is the past president of the North Carolina Medical Society and the North Carolina Medical Board. She is a graduate of Mt. Holyoke in Massachusetts with an undergraduate degree in Biology and a medical degree from New York University. Kanof performed her specialty training at Duke University in Dermatology.

The Medical Care Commission adopts statewide plans for the construction and maintenance of hospitals, medical centers and other health care facilities. The commission has 17 members, each serving a four-year term. All members are appointed by the governor.
